The Student Success Team

The Student Success Team (SST) is a process of regular education.

The team reviews individual student's concerns and pla The Student Success

Team ns ways of handling those concerns in the regular classroom.

The students is selected usually through the classroom teacher (or the principal)