

to be involved. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][1])

- Using the WCCUSD templates, an annual Title-I Parent Meeting is held in October at Back to School Night, to inform families of the programs and services provided to Title-I students and the value of family engagement.

Items provided to all parents at the meeting include:

1. A directory of resources and services available at the school site

i. Timely information about the Title I program. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[c][4][A])

- JFK High School communicates with families about resources and services available at

The site's Title I implementation of communication includes the following:

[REDACTED]

standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of Title I, Part A, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children. (20 U.S.C. § 6318[e][1])

- JFK High School hosts two Back to School Nights and two Orientations (one in the Spring and one in the Fall) to educate parents on how to support learning at home and how to monitor student achievement.
- JFK High School hosts Fireside Chats with the Principal (one in the Spring and

The school ensures that information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to parents of participating children in a format and, to the extent

2.4 School-Parent Compact (If your school has a separate compact to address this

[The following text is heavily obscured by horizontal black bars and is therefore illegible.]

It may be helpful to include the parent and family engagement policy review in the annual review of the School Plan for Student Achievement.*

Parent involvement should be updated periodically to meet changing needs of parents and family members*

117